

Presented by the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
University of California, San Francisco

UCSF 17th Annual Conference
Sports Medicine for Primary Care

save the date

December 9 -10, 2022

UCSF Mission Bay Conference Center

2022

Friday, December 9th
Virtual Lectures

Saturday, December 10th
In Person Hands On Workshop or Live Stream Keynote Speakers

UCSF 17th Annual Conference
Sports Medicine for Primary Care

Postmaster, if undeliverable, please return to:
UCSF Partners in Care
505 Parnassus Ave • San Francisco, CA 94143

Course Information and Registration: cme.ucsf.edu

OBJECTIVES

Learners will apply acquired skills and strategies to:

- Conduct specific musculoskeletal examinations and joint injections effectively.
- Diagnose the most common musculoskeletal injuries using history, exam, and (if needed) imaging.
- Incorporate conservative and surgical treatment options for common musculoskeletal problems.
- Learn from experts in their respective fields on topics such as dance medicine, pediatric sports, concussion rehabilitation and women's health.

COURSE CO-CHAIRS

Anthony Luke, MD, MPH

Benioff Distinguished Professor in Sports Medicine
Director, UCSF Human Performance Center

Kristin Wingfield, MD

Clinical Professor, Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine
Physician to SF Ballet

Nonprofit Org
US Postage
PAID
San Francisco CA
Permit 487

REGISTRATION FEES • COURSE # MOR23002

- $650 Full
- $550 Partial
- $450 UCSF Students/Residents

Friday - Saturday save the date
December 9-10, 2022
UCSF Mission Bay Conference Center