

SF Trauma Course 2024

Proximal Humerus Approaches

Utku KANDEMIR, MD
Professor
University of California, San Francisco
Orthopaedic Trauma Institute

1

Positioning - Beach Chair

2

Regular table

3

Patient all the way to the injured side: The head at the edge of the table
Tape the head!

4

C-Arm tilted that you can have the GH joint view and AVOID the bars of the table

5

AP view of the GH joint - Grashey

6

By rolling the C-arm you can get the lateral view of proximal humerus

7

8

Approaches

9

10

11

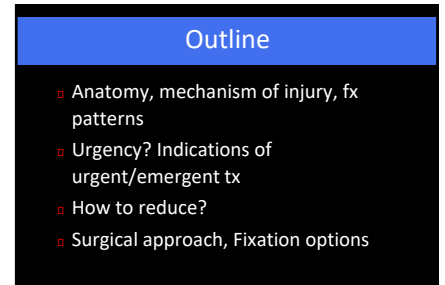

12

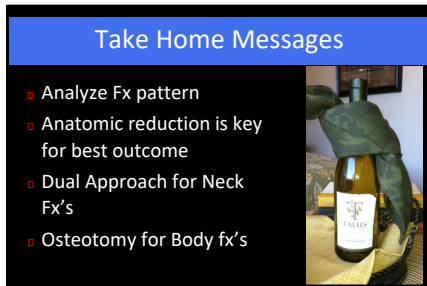

13

14

15

16